

Third Grade | Science Power Standards

Physical Science

1. Explains how sound is generated and travels.

Earth and Space Science

2. Describes the properties of earth materials and uses these properties to classify earth materials.

Life Science

3. Describes how living things depend on each other and the nonliving resources in their environment to survive and complete their life cycle.
4. Describes the structures and behaviors of plants and animals that allow them to survive.

Processes, Systems, Inquiry, Application

5. Explains how parts of a system are connected and work together.
6. Uses observations from scientific investigations and models to answer questions about the natural world.
7. Designs a solution to a simple problem using tools.

